

WORK OF CONGRESS NOW MAPPED OUT

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK.

Senate Will Discuss the Silver Substitute for the Bond Bill—Senator Davis Gives His Views on the Alaskan Boundary Dispute—General Washington News.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The greater part of the time of the senate during the present week will be consumed in the discussion of the finance committee's silver substitute for the bond bill. Senator Morgan will lead off with a speech to-day, and Senators Daniels and Dubois have given notice of speeches. Various other senators are known to be prepared to take the floor either in advocacy of or opposition to the substitute. The probabilities are all against securing a vote on the measure during the week. The bill is one which under any circumstances would call forth many set speeches and much animated debate, which would render it impossible to reach a conclusion after only one week's debate. The advocates of the bill also have a special reason in this instance for desiring a temporary delay. Appreciating the close margin on the vote, they are desirous that the Utah senators, of whose support they feel confident, should be in their seats when the vote is taken. They would probably not resort to dilatory tactics to secure this delay further than to make sure that there are speeches enough to consume the time in what may be designated as legitimate debate. There are several other questions of minor importance on the senate calendar, which will receive attention during the morning hour each day. The week in the house will be devoted to routine matters. As soon as the consideration of the rules is completed the pension appropriation bill will be taken up. As quite a number of members desire to be heard on various matters connected with the administration of the pension office, and various proposed reforms therein, it has been decided to allow ample time for debate, and it is not believed that the bill will be disposed of before Thursday. The appropriations committee has no other bill ready, and the remainder of the week will be devoted to such other matters as may be brought up.

HAVE NOTHING TO ARBITRATE.

Senator Davis Talks of the Alaskan Boundary Dispute.
Washington, Jan. 13.—Senator Davis of the committee on foreign relations has been giving considerable attention to the Alaskan boundary dispute. He has found nothing in his investigations which would cause him to change the lines that have always been understood as the boundary and upon which both countries have been proceeding for many years. He says that the only question in dispute is whether the ten marine leagues from the ocean mean from the mainland or from the adjacent islands.

Mr. Davis says that this does not even present a case for arbitration, because it is manifestly plain that the shore of the mainland of the continent is the basis of the true line. It is also evident from the selection of the mountain range as a line that the men who drew the boundary agreement meant that the line should be ten leagues from the ocean where it touched the mainland. Islands, he says, always go with the shore, and when a question arises as to whether an island, no matter at what time settled or claimed, belongs to one country or another, it goes always to the country owning the mainland if the mainland be adjacent.

The desire of Great Britain for a portion of the Alaskan coast is plainly apparent, declares Senator Davis, when it is considered that there is a vast country in the Northwest Territory which can reach the seaboard only through a pass in the north Rocky Mountains and then across the strip of land owned by the United States. West of the Rocky Mountains and east of the Alaskan coast is a country of almost inestimable value known as the Peace River country. There may be 100,000,000 acres of tillable or pastoral ground there. It has the benefit of the warm air currents from the Pacific, which makes it a milder climate than in those portions of the Northwest Territory farther east.

It is desired by Great Britain to open up this great wheat and stock producing country and secure a short route to the sea. A branch of the Canadian Pacific road could be built through this Peace River region, and, by a pass through the mountains, through to the seacoast without much trouble, and by a much shorter haul than by railroads further south. This would give the Canadian Pacific another western terminus, would build up a British city right upon the flank of the Alaskan portion of the United States. There would be another great naval station and a military post commanding our Alaskan territory, and the protection which the Alaskan coast now gives to this country would be largely nullified. Senator Davis does not think this government will ever seriously consider the question of arbitrating the Alaskan boundary.

SUPPORTS MONROE DOCTRINE.

Congress Likely to Make a Positive Declaration on the Subject.
Washington, Jan. 13.—The senate foreign relations committee decided Saturday upon a positive affirmation of the Monroe doctrine by congress, and a sub-committee was appointed to draft a resolution declaring the sense of congress on this question. The committee was almost unanimous in advocacy of a declaration on the Monroe doctrine. Senator Gray is understood to have taken a position adverse to such a declaration. The opinions advanced were almost all to the effect that the Venezuelan affair had served to emphasize the wisdom of this doctrine and to show that the time was ripe for an official declaration of it by the lawmaking power of the land.

The opinion was very general that the administration should be supported in any effort it might make looking to the protection of American subjects in Turkish territory and that the United States should make its influence felt in that quarter.

Venezuela Commission Meets.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The Venezuelan commission resumed its sessions at the diplomatic room of the state department Saturday, the session lasting continuously from 10:30 until 3:30. The members separated as soon as adjournment occurred. So far as could be learned, however, the merits of the boundary question were not taken up, except in the presentation of Dr. Gilman's map of the territory.

DON'T EXPECT WAR.

Complications Between Great Britain and Germany Will Be Patched Up.

London, Jan. 13.—Interest in the Transvaal question in its immediate bearings has revived to an appreciable extent while the incidental straining of relations between Great Britain and Germany, which so completely placed the Boers in the background of the picture for a time, has in its turn receded, but by no means disappeared. There is little apprehension of war with Germany, over the present complication at least, and the British public has a reassuring sense that if there is to be a war they are right ready for it. The prompt and efficient measures of the naval authorities and the formidable show of strength that is the result gives John Bull a feeling of confidence. There are no further explicit announcements of movements looking to an alliance of the powers against Great Britain. Nevertheless, it is keenly perceived by the public that the sentiment displayed by the German government has a far wider bearing than the present dispute in Transvaal, and there are visions of future complications on questions of conflicting interests.

Saturday's cabinet council and the meetings at the colonial office remain largely a subject of speculation, and whatever decisions may have been taken are sedulously guarded as state secrets, and the greatest care taken to avoid publicity.

It is understood that the difficulty over the manner of disposal of Dr. Jameson's followers was settled on Saturday, the Transvaal government simply stipulating that the rank and file of the Jameson expedition should be deported from South Africa. According to the Transvaal law, the punishment for treason is banishment and a large fine. It is not believed here that President Kruger has demanded the abrogation of the London convention, which provides for the suzerainty of Great Britain over the Transvaal, as the price of sparing Dr. Jameson's life.

AFTER GRAVE ROBBERS.

New Developments Prompted at Des Moines—Should Be a Capital Crime.
Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 13.—No more grave robberies were detected yesterday, but it is understood that the police are preparing to make new developments soon, that may implicate more people. The medical students arrested declare that they are innocent, and regard the matter as a joke, but the police claim they can convict some of them, at least. The bodies of Alexander Bell and Mrs. Rachel Townsend were taken back to the Saylorville cemetery and reinterred in their old graves, and the bodies of James Anderson and Michael Muldoon were at the same time returned to their graves at the county poor farm. The Register declares that the legislature should make grave robbery a capital crime, and that any medical college which uses stolen bodies should be torn down.

Iowa Legislature Convenes.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 13.—Today at 10 o'clock both houses of the general assembly will convene. Dr. Hutchins will preside as temporary secretary of the senate, resolutions having been adopted that the ex-officers of both houses who are in the city shall officiate as temporary officers. The house and senate effected permanent organization practically by caucus Saturday afternoon. W. E. Bullard of Belmont was made secretary of the senate, and James D. Rowen clerk of the house. H. W. Byers of Shelby county was chosen speaker of the house by acclamation.

Death of Ex-Senator Wright.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 13.—Two funerals will occur in Des Moines this afternoon. They will be semi-state affairs, the legislature, state officers, bar, and other associations attending, each in a body. The funeral of ex-Senator George G. Wright, who died Saturday morning at 3:30 o'clock, aged 76 years, will be held from his residence at 3 o'clock, and the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Given, wife of Chief Justice Given, of the state Supreme court, who died Friday afternoon, will be held at 2 o'clock.

MANAGUA ATTACKED BY THE INSURGENTS

THE LATEST NEWS RECEIVED FROM CUBA.

Large Spanish Force Sent to Its Relief—Gen. Gomez Is Again Proceeding Eastward—Rolloff's Band Has Passed the Big Bridge, Efforts to Check Them Failing.

Havana, Jan. 13.—There has been an engagement between Spanish troops and a band of 500 insurgents at Managua, only twelve miles southwest of Havana. The attack on Managua still remained in doubt at last accounts. It was being held by volunteers, but regular troops were dispatched from here to its assistance. It is reported that the insurgents had burned several of the houses, and had killed a number of defenseless citizens.

Further news received confirms the report that Maximino Gomez is proceeding again to the eastward, with a large force of insurgents still left in Pinar del Rio. He was reported yesterday south of the town of Guara, and near Melena, moving eastward through the burned cane fields, and passing Providencia and Guines.

At Banes the insurgents have plundered and burned the great stores. Three clerks were burned and the mayor was killed. The stores in the villages of Cidra and Santa Ana in Matanzas have also been plundered, and in the Cardenas district the field of Guimaro has been burned.

From Manzanillo 500 farm laborers who had come there from the Trinidad district started back under the leadership of Salvador Riese. About 160 of them got part of the way toward Santa Clara, but all deserted their leader and returned to Manzanillo.

In the engagement with Rabi, near Kiguan, the report of which has been published, the insurgent colonel Jaime Masso, four officers and the leader, Esteban Tamayo, were killed.

It is said that 500 insurgents have been killed in the skirmishing in Matanzas Province. The insurgents, under Luis Perez and Munoz, are said to have had many wounded in an engagement near Siguan.

A small schooner has been captured at Caibarien, which was engaged in supplying the insurgents with groceries and ammunition.

Insurgents Are Closer to Havana.

Tampa, Fla., Jan. 13.—Passengers arriving from Cuba report that Rolloff's band has passed over Puentes Grande (the big bridge near Havana). The Spaniards had stretched heavy chains across the bridge to prevent the passage of cavalry. This did not deter the insurgents. General Gomez has sent a proclamation to the chiefs of volunteers in Havana not to commit outrages on any citizens, and threatens to blow up the city if the edict is disregarded.

Race School War in Oklahoma.

Perry, O. T., Jan. 13.—A climax is expected here in the fight that has been waging for months between the whites and the negroes over the school question. After the recent decision of the Supreme court, which declared that the schools must be opened to the children of all races and color, the school board voted to suspend all schools indefinitely. The negroes promptly secured a writ of mandamus ordering a reopening of the schools. To-day the schools contain both whites and blacks and there are all kinds of rumors of impending trouble.

President Crespo Appoints a Commission.
New York, Jan. 13.—The World's copyrighted special from La Guayra, Venezuela, says: "President Crespo has appointed Rafael Seijas, Laureano Villanueva, Julian Viso March and Antonio Saluzzo a commission to search the libraries in Venezuela for old data regarding the Guiana boundary, in order to assist the United States commission. The legislatures of the states of Miranda and Zulia have approved President Crespo's decree making rebellion treason, and have petitioned congress to enact a law making it so."

Russia Supports Germany.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The autograph letter of the Emperor William to the Czar was brought to this city by Prince Von Radolin, the German ambassador to Russia. The Czar told Prince Von Radolin that he entirely concurred in the views and aims of Emperor William, who was taking the lead against Britain's arrogance, and added that the German Emperor could firmly rely on his support and the support of the states friendly to Russia, namely France and the United States.

Cecil Rhodes Has Not Retired.

Kimberley, Griqualand, Jan. 13.—Cecil J. Rhodes, the retiring premier of Cape Colony, has arrived here, and was accorded a cordial reception. In expressing his thanks he said that his political career was not ended, but was only just beginning. He was firm in his belief, he added, that, encouraged by his friends, he would live to do much good work in behalf of South Africa.

Royster Admitted to Bail.

Boone, Iowa, Jan. 13.—Stanhope Royster, the slayer of E. W. McFarland, has waived examination and been admitted to bail. His bond was fixed at $5,000, which was furnished by his neighbors, and he is at large. He will probably be tried at once.

MAN AND HIS WIFE KILLED BY A MOB

BLOODY TRAGEDY ENACTED NEAR NEW ORLEANS.

Patrick Morris, White Man, and His Colored Spouse Shot on a Flatboat Near New Orleans—Sheriff's Posse Fight Outlaws—Rangers After a Bandit.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 13.—Patrick Morris, a white railroad hand, and his colored wife met with a terrible fate at midnight Saturday night. They lived in a flatboat near the Westwego wharf of the Texas Pacific Railroad, a few miles above the city on the opposite side of the river. On account of their difference in color, as well as the charge that they kept a disorderly place for negroes, there has been a growing sentiment against them. They were sitting up in their boat when a body of men came down and set fire to the hull. As they made their appearance they were riddled with bullets. The woman was killed outright, but the man fell crippled and the two were burned to ashes with the boat. The authorities of Jefferson Parish, where the affair occurred, claim they cannot discover the perpetrators, but the 11-year-old son of the victims, who escaped with his life and is now in charge of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, says that a business rivalry was at the bottom of the burning, his father having had trouble with a saloonkeeper in the vicinity. He claims to have identified several of the crowd, all of whom were white men.

Outlaws Defeated by a Sheriff's Posse.

Perry, O. T., Jan. 13.—News of a terrible fight has reached here from inland, forty miles west of here, between officers and a gang of horse thieves. The sheriff of Woods county, with his posse, while in pursuit of the band, which had been committing depredations for many months, overtook the thieves and a running fight followed. Jeff Coates, the leader, was shot dead from his horse, and three others of the band were badly wounded and captured. One man of the sheriff's posse was seriously wounded. The remainder of the band, six men, escaped.

Rangers After a Wounded Bandit.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Jan. 13.—Lieutenant Sullivan of the Texas State Rangers and posse left this city for a point thirty miles north in the Indian Territory to capture the notorious desperado, Bill Doolin, who is said to be living in a dugout, seriously wounded from a gunshot received in a battle with the rangers in that vicinity fifteen days ago.

FEELING IS BITTER.

German Press Shows Irritation Against the British Government.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—There is distinctly less stress of feeling here in regard to the international complications growing out of the Transvaal crisis, and the German press, as a rule, devotes less space to it than for some time. The tone of the comment of the newspapers, which means so much in this land of press censorship and inspired expressions in the newspapers, is rather more peaceable, and there is less talk of active hostilities and more hope expressed of an unarmed settlement of the question at issue. Expressions of irritation at the British government and of rancor against the British people are still more or less bitter, however.

Nebraska County Treasurer Short.

Columbus, Neb., Jan. 13.—When the books of Retiring County Treasurer J. W. Lynch were checked up this week a shortage of $29,000 in the cash account was discovered. Nine thousand dollars of this was alleged to have been deposited in the Platte Center Farmers and Merchants' bank, and the balance was due the general fund. Lynch asserted that none of the money had been squandered, but the most of it had been used to hold up the Platte Center bank, of which he was president during 1892-93. He insisted that all had been loaned on good securities. Failure to realize on these, owing to a scarcity of money, caused the shortage in his cash account.

Cincinnati Wants Democratic Convention.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 13.—John R. McLean, proprietor of the Enquirer, who resides in Washington; Senators Brice, Blackburn, Lindsay and the Ohio and Kentucky congressional delegations, as well as part of the Indiana members of congress, are co-operating with the Cincinnati committee to secure the Democratic national convention. Now that the guaranty fund of $50,000 has been secured in addition to the enlargement of Music hall, a strong committee will be sent to Washington to present the claims of the Queen city, and this committee expects much assistance from those who are already working for Cincinnati at the national capital.

Indiana Prohibitionists Active.

Laporte, Ind., Jan. 13.—The prohibitionists are making arrangements to hold a large number of mass meetings in different parts of this state from Jan. 20 to 25. Ex-Governor St. John of Kansas and others will address the meetings. The object is to create interest in the principles of the party preparatory to the state convention, which will be held at Indianapolis in February.

GLASS WORKS SHUT DOWN.

Several Thousand Workmen Are Thrown Out of Employment.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 13.—Reports received here indicate that the window-glass houses, controlled by the Pittsburg and Indiana combinations, have closed down for the month. Several thousand workmen are thrown idle, and all employed in this industry will lose about $100,000 in wages. The reason for the shut down assigned by the manufacturers is that prices can not be maintained if big stocks are accumulated before the spring trade opens.

The workers' association regards the suspension as a violation of the agreement, and threatens to retaliate by refusing to resume work until the manufacturers advance wages to the full amount of the reduction of two years ago.

AUSTRIA IS INDIFFERENT.

Quarrel Between Germany and Great Britain Does Not Interest Them.

New York, Jan. 13.—A special to the Herald from Berlin says: The Bismarckian press deplores the indifference of the Viennese newspapers. It is learned from a thoroughly well-informed source that Prince Goluchowski is very much preoccupied by the present quarrel between Germany and England. He fears that outbreaks of Anglophobia in the future will be accompanied by too close a reapproachment between Germany and Russia. When the reichstag meets, the socialists, in spite of the opposition of the chancellor, will question the government on recent events in the Transvaal. The report is in circulation here that Italy is preparing for war.

Bushnell Governor of Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 13.—William McKinley closes his second term as governor of Ohio to-day, and General Asa S. Bushnell of Springfield will be inducted into the office of chief executive. The inauguration ceremony will occur at 12 o'clock and will be followed by a parade, in which 10,000 men will probably participate. In the evening Governor Bushnell will give a public reception at the capitol.

Boston Capitalist Dead.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 13.—John Spaulding, the sugar refiner, died at the United States Hotel Saturday night. He was born in Madison, Mo., and was 63 years old. He became connected with the Revere sugar refinery at East Boston, and when the sugar trust was formed he became one of the largest stockholders. He was one of the counselors of Governor John D. Long.

Spain Offered to Sell Cuba.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Spain is said to be at the end of her resources and will have to suspend specie payments within the next thirty days. With bankruptcy staring it in the face Spain, it is said, made a proposition to Great Britain to buy the island of Cuba. Lord Salisbury, it is intimated, according to Cuban authority, sounded the United States on the subject, and the reply was President Cleveland's vigorous enunciation of the Monroe doctrine.

Cheer Gov. Altgeld's Name.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 13.—About 1,000 people, most of them coal miners and labor leaders, assembled Sunday at Bartonville to welcome home the pardoned miners, John L. Geher, Dan Cadeell, John Heathcote and Charles Jones. Governor Altgeld's name was wildly cheered, and the concluding business of the meeting was the adoption of a congratulatory telegram.

Bolln Cannot Find Sureties.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 13.—Ex-City Treasurer Henry Bolln occupies a cell at the county jail with no prospect of giving bond. He is charged with embezzlement. When he was elected two years ago Bolln was considered one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Omaha. He says he does not know what became of the money. He has not a dollar.

Nicaragua Willing to Arbitrate.

Nicaragua, Jan. 13.—The boundary dispute between Nicaragua and Costa Rica is assuming a more serious phase. Costa Rica is daily becoming more urgent in her demands. She now claims land to which, it is said, she has never had a shadow of lawful right. This government will propose to submit the matter to President Barrios, of Guatemala, for arbitration.

Salvador Volcano Is Trembling.

Zacateculhuca, Salvador, Jan. 13.—Severe earth tremblings are felt on the slopes of the volcano near here, accompanied by subterranean noises. It is feared that an eruption is likely, which would destroy the valuable coffee plantations which cover the sides of the mountains. The shocks are local, scarcely being felt in the town.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Jan. 13.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Reserve, increase, $7,403,425; loans, decrease, $7,372,300; specie, increase, $2,391,500; legal tenders, increase, $4,925,400; deposits, decrease, $346,100; circulation, increase, $49,700. The banks now hold $27,183,100 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.

Kruger Issues a Proclamation.

Pretoria, Jan. 13.—President Kruger has issued another proclamation to the Rand people, asking them to behave in the future in such a way as to admit the introduction of reforms.

WHOLE FAMILY DIE IN THE SAME ROOM

SEVEN CORPSES ARE FOUND AT CHICAGO.

Peter Hougard Turned on the Gas to Kill Himself Last Night and the Deadly Fumes Suffocated His Wife and Six Children as Well—Bodies Found This Morn.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Peter Hougard, a farmer, committed suicide last night, by turning on the gas. His wife and six children were also victims, and the seven corpses were discovered this morn.

TEN DAYS OF SUFFERING.

Crew of a Shipwrecked British Ship Have a Terrible Experience.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 13.—Ten days of suffering from cold and privation on a rocky bluff, during which time seven of the crew, including the captain and mate, met their death, and the other mate and seamen met with terrible accidents, tells the tale of the wrecking of the big four-masted British ship Jeanette Cowan on Vancouver island, otherwise known as the "boneyard of the Pacific ocean." This frightful news was brought to this city yesterday afternoon by the tug Tyee, which had but a few hours before landed fourteen members of the ill-fated crew at Port Townsend. The officers of the tug tell a most harrowing story of the wreck and of the crew and of its surroundings as found by them.

Train Wreck in Indiana.

Huntingsburg, Ind., Jan. 13.—The east-bound mail train on the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis railroad, which left St. Louis at 8:25 a. m. yesterday and was due to arrive at Louisville at 5:40 p. m., was wrecked at Gray's switch, fourteen miles west of here, at 3:20 o'clock in the afternoon. The mail and baggage cars and the first coach were partly overturned across the track, the other five cars remaining on the rails. The passengers riding in the first coach were considerably shaken up, but no serious injuries are reported. Fireman George Busch jumped when the engine left the track and was buried beneath the tank. He died later. Engineer Hahn escaped with slight injuries.

The Belmont-Vanderbilt Wedding.

New York, Jan. 13.—The Belmont-Vanderbilt wedding Saturday is the one topic of conversation in the circles of the "400." The two features that caused the most comment were the absence of any representative of the bridegroom's family at the marriage, and the fact that the couple were obliged to content themselves with a civil ceremony, as no Episcopal clergyman could perform the service under the laws of the church. W. K. Vanderbilt, the former husband of the new Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, is sojourning at Biltmore, in North Carolina, and is expected to sail to-morrow for the Mediterranean.

Nearly Tranquil in Asia Minor.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The Washington legation received from the sublime porte the following telegram under Sunday's date: "The imperial authorities of Diarbekir having been informed that, owing to a few indiscreet words of two Armenians at a bazaar, some Armenians began closing their shops, hastened to give to the latter proper advice, thanks to which the shops were opened again, and order has not been disturbed. With the exception of Zeitoun, public tranquillity is perfect in all the empire."

Australians Support Lord Salisbury.

Sydney, N. S. W., Jan. 13.—G. H. Reid, premier of New South Wales, has dispatched to Lord Salisbury a telegram on behalf of all the Australian governments assuring him of their loyal support and sympathy in his determination to resent foreign interference in matters of British colonial affairs, and congratulating him upon the prompt and fearless measures adopted in defense of the integrity of the empire.

Beet Producers to Bring Suit.

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 13.—Dodge county beet producers will enter suit to prevent the state's paying some $40,000 to the Oxnard sugar mill, due as bounty on sugar from beets grown in Nebraska. The state law provides that the manufacturer must pay $5 per ton for all beets of a certain grade. It is claimed this is not done by the company. Incidentally the constitutionality of the law will be attacked.

Boers After Prominent Men.

London, Jan. 13.—A special dispatch from Johannesburg says that warrants are out for the arrest of 200 persons, all leading men in the mines and principal companies of the Stock Exchange and of the professional element, but not of the mercantile classes. Among those arrested are several Americans and Germans, including J. S. Curtis, an American engineer.

Unknown Steamer in Danger.

Cape Henry, Va., Jan. 13.—An unknown steamer struck on the reef off the New Inlet life-saving station. North Carolina, last night. The life-saving crew from that station has gone to her assistance.

ALL SOULS CHURCH ECHOES TO "AMENS"

A METHODIST EVENING OF A VERY STIRRING SORT.

Rev. Mr. Southworth Finds Much to Admire in the Church of John Wesley—Notes From Various Bower City Pulpits—Services of the Day.

All Souls church had a stirring up Methodist time last evening. "Amen" rang out, and "testimony" was given.

The stranger who only heard the last part of Rev. Mr. Southworth's address hardly would have guessed he was in a Unitarian church.

In opening his lecture Mr. Southworth said he deeply regretted his inability to find a clerical representative of Methodism who could be persuaded to come and speak upon the subject. After pointing out the origin of Methodism the speaker said among other things, "Methodism came as a reaction against the cold blooded sternness and fatalism of the Calvinistic churches and against the soft and bloodless tranquility of the Established Anglican church. To the Methodists all this seemed intolerable. They demanded that religion should have warmth, vitality and animation. Methodism has become the most powerful ecclesiastical establishment today in Protestant Christendom because it has been from the start full of a passionate energetic liveliness. It calls to action. It appeals to experience. It moves, it quickens. This vitalism and good natured emotionalism has made the Methodist church attractive to the common people. That is what I like about the Methodists and that is why I like the Salvation Army even better."

Boston Unitarianism Cold. "It is the lack of this electric energy and enthusiasm which leaves Bostonian Unitarianism the pale and icy thing it is. In this matter at least I am a thousand fold more a Methodist than I am a Unitarian. I believe in experience of religion so deep and personal that you can talk about it, and about about it, and live about it. I like people who get excited once in a while. I know of nothing which ought to excite us more than the highest and completest salvation of men. Good old Dr. Chalmers used to say that 'Methodism is Christianity in earnest.'"

"Methodists as a class are not rigid theologians. They care more for souls than for doctrines. Their fervent demonstrativeness sets them free from the fastidious kid-gloved inhibitions by which so many churches are handicapped. To them the great thing is to get souls 'gloriously saved' and not to promulgate theological fulminations. This is finely illustrated in good old Father Taylor, who once ejaculated to the Almighty, 'O Lord, save us from bigotry and bad rum, Thou knowest which is worse.'"

After the Presbyterian Church. "I like, too, the emphatic way in which the Methodists denounce the immoralities of the Calvinistic doctrines. They are indignant at the suggestion that Christ died only for the elect. One of their objections used to be, 'If a man is to be damned in order to fulfill God's decrees, ought not that God to be damned for making such decrees?'"

"To which I reply, 'Most certainly.' A recent editorial in Zion's Herald, a Methodist paper, reads as follows: 'Calvinism pure and simple has no redeeming qualities. It is the essence of sadness. As a compendious expression of fundamental errors the system has never been surpassed in the history of theological speculation. Calvinism is a complete travesty of the gospel of Jesus Christ, transferring the character of the infinite God into that of a tyrant. None but a tyrant would graduate his awards without reference to conduct. According to pure Calvinistic teaching God awarded the final condition of men without regard to character. What more could Nero, of the sultan of Turkey do? What more could Satan do? Such an abominable system deserves to be executed by good men and angels.'"

"To all of which in good old Methodist style I respond 'amen!'"

When Mr. Southworth finished, A. D. Hendrickson, a Methodist for sixty years, but now a member of All Souls church, arose and "bore testimony" as he said, to the fairness of Mr. Southworth's statement. There were several deep-voiced "Amen" as Mr. Hendrickson sat down.

Rev. Mr. Barrington, of Christ church, will speak before the Culture club next Tuesday evening on the Episcopal church.

and evening service at the Baptist church. The subject of the morning sermon was "Receiving the Holy Spirit" from the text Jno. 20:22. A shower falling on frozen ground cannot penetrate and enrich it; so the Holy Spirit is unable to benefit a hardened man who is unwilling to receive Him. It is our duty to open our hearts and receive, not to cavil and raise needless foolish questions.

"Ready for the Coming," was the topic of the evening sermon, and the text: "Therefore Be Ye Also Ready; For in Such an Hour as Ye Think Not the Son of Man Cometh." If a dear friend is coming to our home, we put our house in order, make all attractive and inviting and eagerly await his arrival. Jesus Christ, our dearest friend is coming; is there a place prepared in our hearts for Him? The servant who is doing his work faithfully is not afraid to have his master come. The question arises, have we been doing our duty and are we ready for the coming of our Master?

The report of the secretary of the Sunday school showed an average attendance of 223 for the past year. During the last quarter the average has been 224.

The Choir Union, under the able leadership of Professor Taylor, led the singing of the Endeavor meeting in a pleasing manner. There was a larger attendance than usual, there being a number of visitors present from other societies.

A letter has been received from the state school at Sparta, gratefully acknowledging the receipt of a box of Christmas presents prepared and sent by the Junior society.

Such an interest was manifested in the meetings held last week, that they will be continued each evening, except Saturday, during the present week. Dr. Hodge will preach this evening, and Rev. Pence, of the Presbyterian church, will conduct the service Tuesday evening.

The Congregational Church. The congregation listened to an especially helpful sermon yesterday. In the morning on "How We Build" that we should take care to lay the foundation on the rock Christ Jesus, and then to build with such materials as to make the building stand. In the evening on "Moods," taking Saul as the example to show, how if we let ourselves be overcome by these moods, our lives would be a failure. Imagined slights, jealousies and gloomy natures are the fruits of such moods.

Herbert J. Cunningham lead the Christian Endeavor meeting, the subject being "The Peril and Power of Ambition."

The ladies of the supper division have prepared for a social to be held on Wednesday evening, in the church parlor. All are cordially invited. This is to take the place of the regular monthly supper.

The pastor announced his absence for the two coming Sundays. The regular services will be held in the morning. In the evening all are invited to meet with the Christian Endeavor Society.

The Cleophas meets with Miss Bertha Sayles on Tuesday evening.

First M. E. Church Epworth League.

The meeting of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church was lead by W. J. Knight, his subject being "Testimony, Confession or Denial." It was a very interesting and profitable meeting. The singing was led by Archie Crawford who also rendered a solo. A business meeting will be held tonight in the League rooms and every member is requested to be present.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS MARRIED.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Godfrey Have Their Silver Wedding Pleasantly Marked.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Godfrey, of Johnson, were too very much surprised people on the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, January 10. They were both away from home, and on being summoned, found their house taken possession of by their relatives and friends. After a sumptuous dinner was served, the bride and groom renewed the covenant made twenty-five years ago. The bride carried a bunch of apple blossoms.

Rev. Mr. Clark in the name of those present, presented Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey with an elegant set of China consisting of one hundred pieces and an oil painting, the gift of Mrs. Clark. Rev. S. G. Huey responded in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey. The guests were:

Rev. and Mrs. Clark, Rev. S. G. Huey and family, Mrs. Simpson, J. H. Godfrey and family, T. R. Godfrey and family, W. J. McCord and family, W. J. Louden, C. B. Godfrey and family, W. J. Vance and family, P. A. Godfrey and family, J. D. Godfrey, A. Clemons, D. McArthur and wife, J. Godfrey and wife, A. T. Dale, Miss Alice Dale, Miss Lizzie McGowan, Mrs. Ella Kyle, Miss Mollie McGowan, Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. James McGowan, Miss Jennie McGowan, Mrs. Armstrong, Miss McCartney.

OLD SETTLERS WILL ASSEMBLE

Annual Meeting of Janesville Pioneers to Be Held Wednesday, January 29.

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

DOWD DAMAGE CASE IS SETTLED

The Beloit Water Company Pay the Plaintiff $1,000.

The case of Dowd versus the Beloit Water Works Company and the city of Beloit has been settled by the Water Company paying the attorneys of Mr. Dowd $1,000.

The case was begun in 1893 by Mr. Dowd for injury claimed to have been received in a water ditch then being excavated by the contractors, the McGavock Brothers. It was answered in the pleadings that the contractors and not the Water Works Company, were the parties, if any, liable, the ditch not having yet been completed and turned over to the Water Company. Wisconsin decisions support this defense. The case had this term been sworn out by Judge Bennett's circuit to another by the plaintiff. The settlement was made by the Water Works company to relieve the city from expense and annoyance as the Water Works Attorneys, Messrs. Jackson and Winans, advised that while no damages could probably be sustained against the Water Company, still both the city and company would be put to considerable expense and trouble defending the case, it being estimated that it would cost each of them $500 besides the inconvenience. The Water Works company voluntarily decided to offer this expense money as a settlement and pay it all themselves. Mr. Dowd's attorney offered to settle for $1,500, but on the request of the company for a physical examination of the plaintiff it was objected to, and the offer of $1,000 was then made without regard to injury and accepted. The company state that they offered to pay Mr. Dowd at the beginning for any injury he had received, such injury to be adjudged by a physical examination by any two reputable physicians, but this was refused. They claim to have not been at all to blame in this matter.

A Memorial Tribute to Orson Cox.

The silent Messenger unbidden again entered our Grange, summoning one of our members to the higher degree of truth and undying brightness, and we bow in resignation to the divine law, which, though it fills our hearts with pain and sorrow, gives us the blessed assurance that in the life beyond there is one more to welcome us, when we, too, shall be called to join the many who have passed over to the other side. Brother Orson Cox passed away at his home during November, 1895. We shall miss him, not only in the Grange where he delighted to be, seldom missing a meeting, but socially at his home and fireside as well.

We wish to express our sincere sorrow that one who has grown grey in the service of the Grange and who was so well beloved should be called to leave the life he was making so useful and full of kind words for others, ever ready with cheering counsel and willing hands to help in all good works, a devoted and kind husband and father and faithful friend. Therefore,

RESOLVED, that we feel his cheerful attitude, kind forbearance and charity, to all has given us an example that will benefit all our lives, and while we miss his genial presence in our localities, we, the members of Rock County Pomona Grange tender to his wife and children our deepest and sincerest sympathy in this their great bereavement, and commend them to him who loveth for all.

RESOLVED, That in justice and commendation to the worth of our departed brother, our charter be draped in mourning for the space of sixty days; a copy of these resolutions be placed on our records, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family, also a copy to the county papers for publication.

Damaged Underwear.

A ladies good fleece lined vest goes to 14 cents. Ladies wool Jersey vests to 45 cents. Ladies white wool vests and pants go at 48 cents, men's undershirts the 50 cent kind go to 29 cents, men's all wool medicated extra heavy, worth $1 now sell at 58 cents. Bort, Bailey & Co.

Giant in Name Only.

The giant unlaundred white shirt is savy in name and quality, but the price is small. We claim it is the best shirt on the market for the price, but will compare it with any 75 cent shirt the city. We are convinced of this every day when comforts compare with other makes. Frank H. Lack.

A SOLUTION FROM THE GROVE

James Gillies' Answer.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Of all the answers of your celebrated problem that of Mr. Holderness of Kenosha is the only one that is correct. He does not give the solution. Here it is:

The interest on $4,000 at 5 per cent. equals $200, the annual interest. The purchaser requires 6 per cent. 200.00 divided by 6 equals 33.33, the number of dollars which at 6 per cent. will produce the annual interest, $200.00. But at the end of nine years the purchaser will be paid the principal $4,000. If he should purchase the note for $3333.33 he would, besides making 6 per cent. per annum on his investment, have a profit of $4,000 minus $3333.33 or $666.66. He should therefore pay the owner of the note $3333.33 plus the present worth of $666.66 due nine years hence. The amount of $1 interest paid annually for 9 years is $1.686479. $666.66 divided by $1.686479 equals $394.60 or the number of dollars which is the present worth of $666.66 payable 9 years hence. $3333.33 plus $394.60 equals $3727.93 the present worth of the note. There is no way by which the purchaser can get the interest on $394.60 annually except by adding it to the principal at the end of each year and he receives the whole interest on this $394.60 at the end of 9 years. Hence the present worth is figured on compound interest basis. JAMES GILLIES, Emerald Grove.

IT INCREASES FLESH.

The New Dyspepsia Cure Does It.

A Few Remarkable Instances.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new discovery which has made so many remarkable cures of dyspepsia and indigestion, has recently shown that it also has the effect of increasing the flesh and weight of thin, run-down people and invalids. This is done in a perfectly natural manner. The tablets by restoring perfect digestion cannot fail to increase the weight and general vigor because the first effect of perfect digestion, following the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, is a vigorous appetite, then complete digestion and assimilation of food eaten, and the result is every muscle, nerve, ligament in the body is nourished and the increase in flesh is noticeable in some cases within a week after using the remedy.

Dr. Harlandson mentions many cases in his own practice where Stuart's Tablets were used an increase of flesh was very noticeable in each case. The doctor says: Whenever I have a patient whose stomach is disordered, tongue coated, poor appetite and run-down condition my advice to such is to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the result will be the stomach will be set right, perfect digestion restored, all nervousness disappear and in many cases I have seen the weight increased 15 or 20 pounds. I recommend this remedy in preference to any other because it is not a secret patent medicine but is perfectly pure and wholesome, composed of vegetable essences, fruit salts, pure pepsin and bismuth, and can be given to delicate babies with benefit.

Another case is that of Miss Helen Sholes, of Nashville, who writes as follows: "Up to the fall of 1893 I had suffered from dyspepsia for nearly eight years. I was not sick in bed, but was so miserable, run down, discouraged and nervous that I might better have been in a hospital for any good I was to myself or others. For years I had been thin, pale and dyspeptic. Our good old family doctor did all he could for me, and finally advised me to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, telling me there was no risk in taking it because it was not a secret patent medicine, but every physician knew what the tablets contained. Acting on his advice I went to the drug store, bought half a dozen packages and before they were half gone I knew the right medicine had been found at last. I enjoy an appetite, strength and freedom from weakness that I had never known previously. I gained 18 pounds in weight and while I am not fat (I don't want to be) yet my friends say I am plump enough and any more flesh would be undesirable."

The one great thing about Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is that it can be taken with perfect safety, the formula being known to every physician. No wonderful secret patent medicine can compare with it. Think twice before you put something into your stomach you know nothing about, and if you are run down in flesh, have any trouble with the stomach or poor appetite ask your druggist for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and take no substitute. If your druggist has not got them insist on his getting them for you, as they are sold by all wholesale druggists.

THE MEN CAN'T CUT MUCH ICE

The Low Water Interferes With Gathering Frozen Riches.

Even the icemen—as important as they may be in the summer time—are not cutting much ice these days.

The low stage of the river is responsible.

Henry Tall, manager for the People's Ice Company, says that during their eight years of business in this city, they have never been obliged to extend their runway, but this year they have been obliged to build it out seventy feet, so as to strike the clear, thick ice.

"I haven't a doubt but what the river has fallen four and one-half feet from the mark of last summer," he said.

George Ferris, of the Ferris Ice Company, says that they will have to extend their run-way several feet farther out, and in the places near the shore where they have cut ice for a number of years, will have to be abandoned this year.

Hereafter the Chicago & Milwaukee switch engine will not be on duty on Saturday and Sunday nights thus effecting a saving of about $40 a month. This order has been sent to a number of the cities of the state, as on these two nights there is very little work for the engines to do.

The Man Who Is Afraid of Pneumonia

Will defy the weather if properly dressed with a good ulster at (half price) and the right kind of underwear, such as the Staley. We have it still in all sizes and quality. We are able to make it warm for your body and easy for your pocket book. Frank H. Baack.

These Two.

Two things are keeping our January business right up to December. Quality and price. Bring your pockets in and we will put a little unexpected change in them. We can't do it unless you bring in the pockets. If you want an ulster we can do it. Frank H. Baack.

Lots of Matching.

It takes a lot of matching to match those $6 50 black freize ulsters; nobody in town has them to show you in the quality we can. The truth is they can't be matched even for $7.50. Frank H. Baack.

Electricity in 1492.

Electricity forms an important factor in Rice's elaborate production of "1492." One scene is illuminated with 250 13-candle lamps, and the living pictures are enhanced by a brilliant display of the same powerful lights.

To Water Consumers.

The time for paying water rates expires Wednesday, January 15. Janesville Water Co.

Gen. Harrison Will Soon Wed.

New York, Jan. 13.—General Harrison's wedding with Mrs. Dimmock, so it is stated, will take place in St. Thomas' church in the near future. She is an Episcopalian, while the ex-President is a Presbyterian, and so an Episcopal church will be selected for the ceremony. The ex-President takes pains not to deny the prospective wedding, but only the announcement of a near date. The impression here is that the ceremony will take place after the argument of the California irrigation case before the Supreme Court.

Harrison's Candidate Wins.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 13.—Reports from the Republican primaries held throughout the state Saturday leave no doubt that Nebeker has triumphed most signally over the Goody faction and ex-President Harrison's man will be the chairman of the state central committee and manage the coming campaign in this state.

Incendiary Fire at Crawford, Neb.

Crawford, Neb., Jan. 13.—An incendiary fire yesterday afternoon destroyed a business block and caused a loss of $70,000. The Crawford Commercial was among the losers. A high wind prevailed.

If You Want to Be Miserable.

If you want to be miserable think about yourself, about what you want, what you like, what respects people ought to pay to you, and what people think of you.—Charles Kingsley.

A Patriotic Attitude.

When'er this man was angry
 He patriotic grew;
 His face got red, he then turned white,
 And made the air look blue.

COUGHS AND COLDS.

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes quickly, abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

CONSUMPTIVES

will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their case to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold, or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Green Cream. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Price in B. M. 50 cts. per bottle. Pineola Balsam, 25 cts. Sold by druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.

NO PLACE TO HOUSE A LAD WHO WAS ILL

CITY AND COUNTY AUTHORITIES KEPT BUSY.

Fact That Roy Winn's Disease Was Not Contagious Barred the Use Of the Pest House—Was Not a Case For the Hospitals—Family Took Him In.

When you take it into consideration that there are two hospitals; in Janesville, beside the detention hospital owned by the city and the jail and county institutions run by the county, it may seem queer that so much red tape would be necessary in finding a place to quarter the stranger who was taken sick while within our gates.

Roy Winn, of Beloit, went to Dr. Hugh's office Saturday and said he was sick. Dr. Hughes found him to be suffering from a severe attack of measles, and did all in his power to help the young man. Winn did not have any money, so it was hard work to get him into either of the hospitals and the case was turned over to Health Officer Gibson. Before Dr. Gibson would handle the case he consulted City Attorney McElroy, who advised him not to take the case in charge as the young man was without money. Instead, the city attorney said, the case should be turned over to Poor Master Kenyon. Mr. Kenyon was notified and at once went to the detention hospital where he consulted Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans who run that institution and receive $3 each per day for every patient that they attend to. Mr. Kenyon was not willing to pay $3 a day for the keeping of Winn, and as the case is not contagious, Mr. and Mrs. Evans were not obliged to take Winn in. Mr. Kenyon offered them $1.25 a day, but this they refused. Mr. Kenyon then made arrangements so that Winn is now with a Center street family, and the county is paying $1.25 a day for his board.

But it took considerable figuring to arrange the deal.

GOLD AND FRUIT ON ONE FARM

T. P. Keator Tells of What He Finds At Mountain Home.

Hon. T. P. Keator of Chicago, who was here with Governor Upham at the great meeting at the Myers Opera House the Saturday night before the last election, one of the greatest political demonstrations seen in Janesville for years, is in the city. He is now connected with the Fruitdale Improvement Company of Idaho, of which Judge Richard Tutbill of Chicago and an old Janesville boy, is president and John M. Whitehead is vice-president. Mr. Keator has spent a great deal of time in Idaho and is very enthusiastic over that state. "I am not surprised," said he, "over that great gold mining excitement at Cripple Creek, Colorado. It is the rising wave that will extend to Idaho as well, in the very near future. We have some great mines in Idaho, and as a gold mining state, to say nothing of silver and lead, it is already very near the top of the column. The Boise Valley in which lay the lands of Judge Tutbill's and Mr. Whitehead's company has produced over $200,000,000 in gold since the yellow nuggets were first discovered. Why at Mountain Home we can get gold and fruit from the same ground. We are planting orchards there of peaches, pears, apples and grapes for eastern investors and any of the dirt we dig out of the holes where we plant the trees will show color when it is panned."

MR. AND MRS. FIFIELD ENTERTAIN

Their Crystal Wedding Was Duly Celebrated on Saturday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Fifield pleasantly entertained a number of invited guests at their North Jackson street home Saturday evening. The event was in honor of their fifteenth marriage anniversary and numerous handsome presents were in evidence. From eight o'clock till eleven Smith's orchestra dispersed sweet music for the dancers and there were games and other amusements for those who did not trip "the light fantastic toe." At eleven o'clock a tempting repast, was served after which the guests dispersed wishing the host and hostess many happy recurrences of the day.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs.—

LEO MAYER AFFAIR MAY BE ADJUSTED

NEGOTIATIONS ON FOOT FOR A GENERAL SETTLEMENT.

Part of the Goods Boxed Up and Held By Chicago Firms Represented By Smith & Pierce—Bids to Be Opened In Court Tomorrow.

Big dry goods boxes hold a liberal share of the Leo Mayer stock.

All day Sunday and until 12 o'clock Sunday night, Attorneys Smith & Pierce worked, getting things in shape for a hurried move. They were acting under replevin papers issued to Kuhn, Nathan Fisher & Co., of Chicago; Hart Bros., of Chicago, and the E. Stearns Co., of Chicago.

Another writ of replevin was taken out by the Ludlow Shoe Company, of Elgin. The claim is made by the Chicago and Elgin creditors that their goods were secured from them under false pretenses.

There is a possibility that the whole matter may be settled tomorrow morning. Negotiations are pending for a settlement of all claims. There are also bids for the stock in the hands of Receiver Becker to be opened tomorrow in court.

The goods replevined are technically in the possession of the sheriff and will remain so for three days before the creditors can take possession.

PATRICK GRIFFIN IS IN JAIL.

Keeley Cure Failed to Conquer His Appetite For Liquor.

Patrick Griffin was sent to jail for sixty days by Judge Phelps this morning, Griffin being convicted of being a common drunkard.

Griffin took the Keeley cure a few weeks ago, but he did not stay sober long. Bichloride of gold was not strong enough to combat king alcohol in "Patsey's" case, and he fell by the wayside. He was arrested by Officer Hogan on Saturday night, and this morning he pleaded not guilty when Clerk Williams read the complaint. The court records proved that Officer Hogan's allegation was a correct one, however, and the court sentenced Griffin to a sixty day term in order that he might get all the alcohol out of his system.

"At the gates as hell were open, Hogan," he declared "I'd rather go to hell for sixty days than to go to jail." He declared as they left the court room.

George Rowan, song and dance man, became inebriated Saturday night and was also arrested by Officer Hogan. He got a three-day's sentence.

ALL SOULS, The People's Church

Not theological, but sociological; not ecclesiastical, but humanitarian.

"ALL SOULS" is the church of this life, the church of humanity. It is the church of nature as opposed to the church of mistakes. It is the church of morality, as opposed to the churches of vicarious atonement, predestination and free pardon. In a word it is a Human church, founded on Human nature and devoted to Human needs. Its religion is to make the best of Human Life.

IS A WISE PREACHER.

FARRAR OF LONDON A GRAND OLD MAN.

He Has Just Preached His Farewell Sermon in Westminster—Believes in the Total Abolition of the Liquor Traffic.

HE cable recently announced that Rev. W. H. Farrar had preached his farewell sermon in Westminster Abbey and had gone to take charge of Canterbury Cathedral, of which he was lately made dean. During the last nineteen years the arch-deacon has been one of the glories of the abbey. Few people are aware that he was born in Bombay some sixty-four years ago, and that he was educated in the Isle of Man, in whose picturesque scenery he placed his excellent school story, "Eric, or Little by Little." When at Cambridge he wrote, in 1852, a prize poem, an honor shared in previous years by such men as Macaulay, Praed, Christopher Wordsworth and Alfred Tennyson. The schoolmaster has now merged into the preacher, but Dean Farrar was one of the most successful public school tutors ever known in Great Britain. The head of Marlborough College once wrote of his one-time assistant: "I never knew anyone who had greater power of stimulating intellectual exertion and literary tastes among the boys with whom he came in contact; his character is most lovable; he wins to himself all who approach him. He would be, I am sure, the magnet of all that is noble and generous in the hearts of those whom he rules." And later on Professor Max Muller, who cannot be accused of having any great affection for the clergy, observed that "Farrar's name would add luster to any school in England." His chief post for some years was the mastership of Marlborough College. He has always been in favor of total abstinence, and is a fearless advocate of the total suppression of the liquor traffic. Dean Farrar, who has had an exceptionally happy home life, surrounded by his wife and many gifted children, will lose about $5,000 a year by his promotion to Canterbury, but he will probably give himself up more to literary work. In one particular Farrar will be much missed in London. He has helped to marry

Earnest Renan and His Sister.

A beautiful story of sisterly devotion to a gifted brother is told in a little book just published entitled "Ma Soeur Henriette," by Ernest Renan. For obvious reasons, its publication was delayed until the tomb had closed over both brother and sister. The son and widow of the great writer have made a pious task of giving to the world this interesting record of a pure and lasting friendship, which Ernest Renan took pleasure in writing after death had robbed him of his faithful sister. Henriette Renan was twelve years older than her brother Ernest, and the tender solicitude with which she watched over him in his years of infancy was never relaxed while she lived. After the death of their parents, the brother and sister lived together in an ideal intimacy, sharing their inmost thoughts, hopes and convictions. A brief interruption came at the time of Ernest's marriage, the announcement of which at first proved a shock and a disappointment to his devoted sister. Realizing in time that her jealousy was unreasonable and unworthy of her, Henriette took the new wife to her heart and thereafter the three lived happily together. When Renan went to the east on a mission for the emperor, his wife and sister accompanied him. It was a fatal journey for Henriette, who was attacked in Phoenicia by fever, from which she never recovered. She lies now in a grave in the Syrian desert. Her bereaved brother, on his return from the east, wrote the beautiful prose elegy which has just now been made public. Previous to his death it was circulated among the intimate friends of the family. It is a touching record of a kind of friendship that is rare, and is a warm tribute from a man of genius to a woman to whose help and sympathy he owed, as he testifies, much of his success and fame.

Corn in Minnesota.

Minnesota will raise about as much corn as wheat this year, and in the years to come probably a great deal more. Corn will be the future great cash crop. The demand for it is practically unlimited, and the United States is the only country that raises a surplus of corn.

A QUEER PROPOSAL.
It Came Tardily but Was a Model in Its Brevity.

An aristocratic young lady of Magdeburg, Germany, had spent some time at the country seat of her uncle and a young cavalier from Berlin had been paying much attention to her. Everybody thought it would be a good match for both and affairs went on swimmingly until the day drew near when the young lady was to return home. The nearer the day came the more disappointed were the young miss and her mother at the failure of the young man to ask the all-important question. Finally they left their relative's house in great dismay, and just before leaving the young lady remarked to her uncle that it probably was as well for both, as her mother had not much use for such a "chicken-hearted son-in-law." They left on a train on the narrow-gauge railway connecting the valley with the nearest town. After they had gone the young man questioned the uncle why the young lady had gone away so angry and had hardly noticed him when bidding him good-by. The uncle, a blunt ex-soldier, repeated the remark made by his niece when leaving to the young man, who was touched to the quick by the insinuation of cowardice contained therein. He was very much in love with the lady and had abstained from broaching the subject on account of his not considering it proper to propose anywhere but at the young lady's home, which he intended visiting before long.

This remark, however, aroused his sense of honor and without saying another word, he mounted his horse, which happened to stand ready for an outing, and galloped after the train, which had left a quarter of an hour before. Owing to benign Providence and the management of this country railroad he caught the train before it had reached the next station, Karow; he spied the young lady at the window of a first-class compartment and, riding up to the train before it came to a full stop, almost shouted breathlessly: "My dear Miss —, I ask for your hand. Yes or no?"

In the station Karow, just as the train arrived, a "Yes" was joyfully given by the young miss and tearfully approved by her mamma.

MARRIED IN A VAULT.
A Step-Ladder for an Altar and Court Records for Decorations.

Necessity compelled Albert Grom and Anna Pfahl to be married in a most novel place and amid unusual surroundings last evening. They secured a marriage license late last evening in Newport, and desired to be married at once. Judge Bennett, the successor to Squire Beaslee, was solicited to officiate. The judge's office has been worn away by the tread of lovers who have journeyed there to embark upon the matrimonial sea. But the judge's office was not appropriate for a marriage ceremony last evening. The electric lamps had been "cut-out" by a falling tree, and the sanctum was in darkness. The only office in the courthouse that was illuminated was that of the county clerk. This was filled with men, and Miss Pfahl's modesty rebelled against so public a ceremony. Deputy Clerk Stine suggested that the big depository of the records of the office be utilized, and to this the young people acquiesced. Accompanied by Judge Bennett the couple repaired to the vault, and, with court records in lieu of floral decorations and a step-ladder for an altar, the ceremony was performed, to the enjoyment of the audience without the portals, who gained a glimpse of the bridal party through the open door of the vault.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Real Marriage Lottery.

In the Church of Santa Maria Annunziata, at Naples, girls assemble once a year for the purpose of being chosen in marriage. On the day of Our Lady, before its altar kneels a silent row of thirty girls dressed in black, and with folded hands. They are orphans of the neighboring foundling asylum, and once a year those who have reached the age of eighteen have a chance of being chosen in marriage by any honest man whose character is good. At the door leading to the sacristy stands a gray-haired priest, the head of the foundling institution. By and by, a young man approaches him, and hands him a packet of papers. These the priest reads carefully, and, being satisfied, leads the candidate towards the row of girls. The man walks slowly along the row—at last he stops; his choice is made, and he stretches out his hand. The girl rises, puts her hand into that of the stranger by way of consent, and together they disappear into the sacristy. The ice having been broken, others follow, and this goes on until the suitors are exhausted, or all the girls have been chosen.—Tidbits.

Slavery in England.

Slavery survived in England much later than is generally supposed. The word bondage in Northumberland still means a female farm servant. The coolies and salters (i. e., salt miners) of East Lothian were actually slaves till 1775. If they deserted their service anyone harboring them was liable to a penalty of £5 if he did not restore them in twenty-four hours. The last slave in England was not freed completely until 1799 and in 1842 there was a coolie living who, as well as his father and grandfather, had worked as a slave in a pit at Musselburgh.

New York's Constitution.

The new constitution of New York state contemplates the separation of municipal affairs from national politics, and to that end it provides that the election of mayors shall take place at a time when federal officers are not to be chosen.

His Natural Bent.

Fond Father—If that boy of mine has any particular bent I can't find it. Philosopher—What experiments have you made to find out?

"Very thorough ones. I gave him a toy printing press, a steam engine, a box of paints, a chest of tools, and a lot of other things carefully selected to find out whether his tastes were literary, mechanical, artistic, commercial, or what, and I know no more than I did before."

"What did he do with them?"

"Smashed them up."

"Ah, I see. He is to be a furniture mover."—N. Y. Weekly.

Naturally Elated.

Miriam—Oh, Ferdie! you know those rice picture frames and worsted mottoes and horseshoe paper-weights that I made, and which I took to the church sale at your suggestion?

Ferdinand (hopefully)—They were all sold, dear?

Miriam (elatedly)—Yes! The auctioneer, such a nice man, described them so beautifully, and they looked so utterly lovely and too sweet for anything, that I just bought every last one of them back again myself!—Judge.

The Last Straw.

Nodd—You say your baby doesn't walk yet? Mine does. Same age, too. Your baby cut his teeth yet?

Todd—No.

Nodd—Mine has, all of them. Your baby talk?

Todd—Not yet. Can yours?

Nodd—Great Scott, yes.

Todd (desperately)—Does he shave himself or go to a barber's?—Truth.

Where He Was Mistaken.

Bentley, Sr.—It's no credit for a poor young man like you to be seen out so much with a wealthy spendthrift like young Scattermore!

Bentley, Jr.—No credit? Humph! That's all you know about it! Why, even Scattermore's tailor is impressed by it, and I'm five suits ahead, with no bill in sight yet.—Bay City Chat.

Misery.

"What the dickens do you know about misery?" asked the bald-headed man of the younger one.

"Wait till you get married and come home late and have your wife lecture you for three hours in a whisper for fear of waking the baby, and you will have some idea of what is misery."—Indianapolis Journal.

An Unreasonable Man.

Husband (shaving)—Confound the razor!

Wife—What's the matter now? You're dreadfully cross-tempered.

"The razor is so infernally dull."

"Dull? Why, I ripped up an old skirt with it only yesterday, and it cut beautifully!"—Chicago Record.

The Wife for Him.

Candid Friend—I say, Chatterton, you ought to marry an intellectual woman.

Chatterton (much pleased)—Do you think so? Why?

Candid Friend—So that your children will have some brains.—N. Y. Weekly.

Improving the Text Book.

Professor of Physics—Mr. Lowstand, if you were to drop 100 pounds of lead, heated to 100 degrees, into an equal weight of water at 16 degrees, what would the result be?

Lowstand—A funeral, sir.—Yale Recorder.

Very Circumspect.

Miss Pert—Is Miss Straight Laced circumspect?

Miss Caustic—Circumspect! Why, she won't accompany a young man on the piano without a chaperon.—Salem Gazette.

Great.

"And you expect to be a great actress?"

"I don't believe I can help it. I diet and take anti-fat, but it does no good."—Detroit Tribune.

Physician, Heel Thyself.

"Ever take your rheumatism to that doctor who heels by touch?"

"Yes. He touched me and heeled himself to the extent of $15."—Indianapolis Journal.

Diplomacy.

"Belle, how do you keep Bob at home nights?"

"I had a folding bed made that looks just like a sideboard."—Chicago Recorder.

COMES TO AMERICA.

Keir Hardie, the British Labor Leader Visiting Chicago.

Keir Hardie, England's great labor leader, is now in this country. He has been sent here as a delegate to the trades union congress in Chicago. Hardie was defeated for parliament at the last election, but he is as active as ever in the labor movement. His visit is likely to make more of a sensation even than that of John Burns last year.

KEIR HARDIE.

Hardie is now 40. He has been all his life a workman, having worked in British rolling mills. His home is in West Ham, England, and he has been a socialist leader for many years. He always goes about in a typical Scotch laborer's cap and has the broad northern "burr" in his speech. He intends to preach socialism while in this country, and his tour will be a lengthy one.
